Newhouse Receives William T. Kemper Foundation Grant

KANSAS CITY, MO, DECEMBER 8, 2008: Newhouse is pleased to announce that it has received a $25,000 grant from the William T. Kemper Foundation in support of Newhouse domestic violence shelter services.

Located in the urban core of Kansas City, Missouri, Newhouse is recognized as the oldest domestic violence shelter serving Kansas City's urban core. The mission of Newhouse is to break the cycle of domestic violence by providing the tools that allow women to make positive choices and lead self-sufficient lives. Newhouse serves over 600 women victims of domestic violence and their children each year.

The William T. Kemper Foundation (Commerce Bank, Trustee) is dedicated to improving the human condition and quality of life through its grant making initiatives in Missouri and the Midwest—including education, health and human services, civic improvements and the arts.

For more information visit the Newhouse website at www.newhouseshelter.org or contact Newhouse at 816-474-6446 x230.
