Newhouse Receives $10,000 Oprah's Angel Network Grant
Domestic Violence Shelter Honored at O You! on October 24, 2009

(KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, OCTOBER 28, 2009) – Newhouse has been chosen to receive a $10,000 grant from Oprah's Angel Network as part of the grantmaker's annual grant program. The grant will be used to support ongoing operations at Newhouse, a domestic violence shelter located in Kansas City's urban core.

"This grant is such a blessing to Newhouse," said Leslie Caplan, Newhouse President, at the grant presentation ceremony at an O You! event at Bartle Hall in Kansas City, Missouri on Saturday, October 24, 2009. "In alliance with Oprah's Angel Network commitment to the empowerment of women and children, Newhouse seeks to empower women by giving them the resources they need to make positive choices and lead violence-free lives."

Founded in 1971, Newhouse provides safe shelter and critical domestic violence education and services to women victims of domestic violence and their children. In 2008, the Kansas City shelter served 775 women and children, providing 22,230 bed nights. For more information see newhouseshelter.org.

Oprah's Angel Network works around the globe to give people the chance to live their best lives.
